

SQUAD AGREEMENT 2022 / 2023 SEASON

This Squad Agreement forms part of the terms and conditions which constitute being a member of a squad whilst at West Coast Gymnasts. By signing this document, the member (or parent/guardian of an athlete under 18 years of age) agrees to abide by all of the rules, Policies and Procedures that govern West Coast Gymnasts and its members:

Agreement To Training Expectations

- You agree that training is compulsory and a season-long commitment, noting that the season generally runs from 1st of November to 31st of October of each year, dependent on the Gymnastics WA calendar.
- You agree that poor attendance may affect the member's position in the squad and that the club reserves the right to terminate the member's position at any time.
- You understand and agree that being in a squad requires discipline, focus and dedication, and that the member will commit to working towards a high standard.
- You agree that if, at any time, the member (athlete/parent/guardian) cannot be a supportive and positive force in and outside of the gym, the position in the squad will be relinquished.
- You agree that the relevant Codes of Conduct will be adhered to at all times by both athlete, parent/guardian and spectators.
- You understand, and agree to, that if the member is injured, depending on the severity of the injury, they may still be asked to train, whether it be for a modified program, or to simply work on strength and conditioning. This will be based on merit in conjunction with any advice from health care professionals.
- You understand and agree that scheduled holiday breaks will be provided during the season. These dates will be set by the Competitive Programs Manager once the Club has been notified of the Gymnastics WA calendar for 2023.

Agreement To Competition Expectations

- You understand and agree that competing is compulsory (except for Interclub, Pre Dev and other select groups) as there are team events held throughout the year and that booking online for these competitions will only be available via the Customer Portal.
- Payment must be made at the time of booking prior to the Club's official closing date otherwise late fees may apply up to 3 days after the closing date. After the 3 days have lapsed, no further entries will be permitted.
- You understand that the competition cost includes the fee to enter the member, plus a levy that supports coach and judge wages/payments, as well as the administration costs involved to enter participants.

Agreement To Financial Obligations

- You understand, acknowledge, and agree to, the Club's Fees Policy which is readily available on the Club's website.
- You understand that fees are calculated by using an hourly rate x number of hours per session x number of sessions in the calendar month and that these amounts will fluctuate, depending on the annual calendar for 2022/2023.
- You understand and agree to, that the club has authority to take payment from the card details held on file on, or after, the due date.
- You understand, acknowledge, and agree that the member will not be entered into any events or be able to participate in an event if the account holder is not considered a financial member.
- You understand, acknowledge, and agree that an Annual Membership and Insurance Registration Fee will be charged in December 2022 in preparation for the 2023 calendar year. This fee will include personal accident insurance through Gymnastics Australia's Insurer, Marsh Advantage.
- You understand, acknowledge, and agree that an Annual Equipment Levy will be due and payable per family as and when determined by the Club, and this payment contributes towards the purchase of very expensive and much needed equipment. This fee is non-refundable and not pro rata should a member terminate their membership at any time during the season.
- You understand, acknowledge, and agree that a Fundraising Levy will be invoiced to each squad member family per semester. If a member opts to volunteer or fundraise on behalf of the club (one per semester), this will then be credited to the account.
- You understand, acknowledge, and agree that if the member wishes to withdraw their membership or cease training, 4 weeks' notice must be made as per the Club's Drop Policy and that during this notice period, all fees are still due and payable.
